

HOT DEBATE

In the Senate on the Negro Question.

TILLMAN WAS BUSY

And Wound Up His Performance by Apologizing to the Senate for Attempting to be Funny.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Few features of the spectacular were missing from the proceedings in the senate Monday. The Brownsville affair was the subject of controversy and the day began with the announcement of a compromise resolution which brought both republican and democratic senators together on the basis of ordering an investigation of the facts of the affair without bringing into question the authority of the president to dismiss the negro troops. The resolution was submitted to and approved by the president on Sunday.

When the "harmony" testimonials were all in, Senator Tillman delivered a speech in reply to the recent criticism of himself by Senator Spooner. This speech began with a satirical picture of the senate as a minstrel show, which Mr. Tillman later said was his first and last attempt to be "funny," an attempt which at its conclusion brought a stinging denunciation from Senator Carmack in resentment of allusions to him.

This was preceded by a serious reply from Senator Spooner on the attitude taken by Mr. Tillman on the race problem, finally resulting in a session of nearly two hours behind closed doors.

The secret session was followed by a brief open one in which Mr. Tillman made a profuse apology to Mr. Carmack, to all senators whom he had brought into his "first essay in the line of humor," and finally to the entire senate. "I very much regret that I ever undertook to be funny, and I will never do so any more," Mr. Tillman then withdrew all he had said in his "funny essay" and said it would not appear in the Record.

This apology was at once accepted by Mr. Carmack, who regretted he had questioned the motives of his friend, and he, too, withdrew words he had uttered in protest.

Mr. Foraker made a final attempt to get a vote on his resolution, but objection was made and the matter will be taken up to-day.

House.—The house pronounced unanimously in favor of enlarging the field and coast artillery.

An interesting political discussion grew out of the passage of the so-called "political purity" bill prohibiting corporations from making money contributions in connection with political elections.

A bill was passed authorizing the secretary of commerce and labor to investigate and report upon the "industrial, social, moral, educational and physical condition of women and children workers in the United States." The measure has already passed the senate. The house passed the District of Columbia appropriation bill.

Slavery in Frisco.

Washington, Jan. 22.—"Chinese boys and Chinese girls are sold in the San Francisco market like horses and mules," was one of the statements made Monday by Representative McKinlay, of California, before the house committee on foreign affairs which is considering the Perkins bill to modify the Chinese exclusion act. Mr. McKinlay urged that only a few great companies, which brought such young Chinese, would profit by any modification of the exclusion act and said the majority of Californians are opposed to any tampering with the present law.

Brower Must Stand Trial.

New York, Jan. 22.—William A. Brower, jr., president of the Washington Life Insurance Co., must stand trial on indictments returned against him charging perjury and forgery, under a decision handed down Monday by Justice Newburger. The decision denies a motion for dismissal of the indictments. The indictments arose out of the report of the company filed with the state insurance department for the year 1901, in which $400,000 worth of policies had been charged off the report as having lapsed and the day after the report had been filed were re-entered in the books of the company.

Lost Stolen Money in Wall Street.

New York, Jan. 22.—Charles Zimmer, an employee of the Wells Fargo Co., who disappeared a few weeks ago, walked into the district attorney's office Monday and surrendered. It is alleged that a shortage of $1,400 in his books was discovered after he disappeared. "I haven't a cent left," said he, "all the money went in Wall street." He was sent to the Tombs prison in default of bail.

An Attorney Is Fined $1,500.

Indianapolis, Jan. 22.—Philander H. Fitzgerald, a wealthy attorney of this city, who was indicted by the federal grand jury on the charge of using the mails with intent to defraud, appeared Monday before Judge Anderson and entered a plea of guilty. He was fined $1,500 and costs. Two indictments had been brought against him. The scheme was in relation to the "1904 colony," located in Georgia. This colony had been established at St. George, Ga.; Mr. Fitzgerald has the town of St. George surveyed and he sold a large number of lots.

ANOTHER FIT OF THE SHAKES.

SHORT NEWS ITEMS.

The Merchants and Farmers' Bank of Fairmont, Minn., has suspended payment. The liabilities are $77,974. At Fergus Falls, Minn., the recent storm was the worst of the season. Two passenger trains remained in the yards 14 hours, waiting for the track to be cleared.

In consequence of protests received at the navy department from organized labor, the secretary has telegraphed the commanders of the Boston, New York and Norfolk navy yards to suspend all extra work on warships in course of construction. It is said the men were working more than eight hours a day.

Would Not Guarantee His Safety.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 22.—Today is the anniversary of "Red Sunday," when Father Gapon led a demonstration of the people before the Winter palace and many were killed by the troops. The prefect of police has ordered the police reserves under arms the whole day and strong patrols of Cossacks and dragoons will be stationed in all sections of the city to prevent demonstrations. Grand Duke Vladimir, who in general although mistakenly regarded as responsible for the slaughter, has returned to Tsarskoe-Selo palace at the request of the police, who notified him that they would not guarantee his safety.

Told a Thrilling Story.

Providence, R. I., Jan. 22.—A thrilling tale was told last night by survivors of a great storm that raged off Long Island from Saturday night until Monday. One of the survivors, an infant boy, was tied in a dunnage bag and floated from a tumbling lifeboat to the deck of a tug. Another, a girl, 3 years old, also bound in a dunnage bag, was dragged through the seas and landed beside her brother. No person was drowned. The survivors were brought here by the tug Buccaneer, which left Baltimore Thursday for Providence, towing two immense coal barges, both of which were lost.

Must Defend the Suits.

Salt Lake City, Jan. 22.—The Utah Fuel Co. and the Pleasant Valley Coal Co., could corporations against which the federal government recently instituted suits to annul the title to certain coal lands in Utah and to force an accounting for coal already mined from these lands, must defend these suits in the federal court for the district of Utah, according to a decision rendered Monday by Federal Judge Marshall.

Soldiers Run Amuck.

Columbus, O., Jan. 22.—More than a score of soldiers from the United States recruiting station went on a rampage in the wholesale quarter last night and caused great havoc by hurling stones, bricks and sticks through the windows of stores, saloons and resorts. About 30 of the alleged marauders were placed in the guard house at the post.

A Murder on the Street.

Denver, Jan. 22.—Percy Smith, a bartender, was shot and killed last night by James Ryan. The shooting happened on Curtis street, the very center of the business section, and hundreds of persons were passing at the time. Ryan was arrested. The cause of the killing is said to be jealousy.

70 FEET DEEP

Are Snow Drifts Along Great Northern Road.

FURIOUS BLIZZARD

That Swept Over the Northwest Last Saturday was the Worst Storm Ever Known There.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 22.—The heavy snow which covers North Dakota for miles and miles is piled in drifts of unprecedented depth, covering in some cases houses and barns. In anticipation of Saturday's blizzard all the railroads bent every effort to bring to the towns of the state trains filled with coal and provisions. This action of the railroads was wise, for now every line in North Dakota is at the mercy of the elements. Not a train on any line has arrived in St. Paul for three days.

The blizzard which swept over the northwest on Saturday was the worst recorded in 50 years. The weather moderated Monday and everywhere gangs of men were at work striving to clear the snow from houses and railroad tracks.

The Great Northern road put eight rotaries and 25 snow plows at work. The main lines of the road were opened through to North Dakota and trains are moving slowly to relieve the congestion and to carry supplies through the central part of the state. In the mountain district, however, the road has fared badly, snowdrifts filling in the tracks and banks piling up as deep as 50 and even 70 feet. The Northern Pacific road is bending all efforts to keep the main line clear. Eight rotaries are working along the line. It was reported Monday that traffic was moving slowly on the main line and some trains would arrive in St. Paul to-day.

The Soo road is demoralized. Not a train can reach St. Paul through the stormbound regions and, though men are kept working in shifts, night and day, the right of way has not been cleared. The branch lines have been abandoned for a time.

A Wonderful Escape.

Mohilev, Russia, Jan. 22.—Chief of Police Rodionoff was attacked Monday while riding in the street by two assassins and had a miraculous escape from death. One of the men emptied an automatic revolver at Rodionoff, missed him, but mortally wounded his coachman, while the second threw a bomb, and although his instrument exploded with tremendous force, the chief of police was not hurt. The assassins were pursued by the police; one committed suicide and the other was captured.

Explosion Damaged a Barracks.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Jan. 22.—Three boys playing war in the basement of the infantry barracks at Fort Russell, near this city, set fire to a quantity of powder and an explosion occurred which damaged the barracks to the extent of $15,000 and seriously injured the boys.

A Famous Writer Dies.

Chicago, Jan. 22.—Josiah Flynt Willard, whose experiences as a tramp, author and sociologist under the name of "Josiah Flynt," have given him a wide reputation, died here Sunday night, aged 48 years.

Death List Grows.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 22.—The hurricane which swept the Niagara frontier Sunday has subsided and a more extended examination of the damage to shipping lowers the original estimate. At the port of Buffalo alone, however, it will be about $1,000,000. The high waters of Lake Erie receded Monday, leaving some of the stranded lake liners high and dry on the beaches. None of them appears to be seriously damaged. The death list totals four. Three persons were killed in the collapse of buildings and another was drowned.

AN OHIO BUDGET.

Holds the Engineer Responsible.

Canton, O., Jan. 22.—Coroner March on Monday completed his findings in the collision of December 11 between a Pennsylvania limited train and a Wabash freight train which resulted in the death of Engineer John Ray, of the Wabash. The coroner holds that Engineer Snyder, of the Pennsylvania flyer, is guilty of manslaughter caused by his negligence. Coroner March says he regrets that there is no way in which to reach the high Pennsylvania officials for the death of Ray. He declares the evidence shows that Pennsylvania officials have been continually violating Ohio laws by running their flyer over the Wabash crossing without the stops required by law.

The River Falls.

Cincinnati, Jan. 22.—After being stationary at 65.2 feet for a time, the Ohio river at this point began to recede slowly Monday afternoon and at dark had fallen to 65 feet, with all indications for a continuance of the fall. The aggregate damage will run far into the hundreds of thousands of dollars, this being distributed along several hundred miles of the Ohio river and its tributaries. The cold weather which assisted in the ending of the high water was the cause of much suffering among the thousands of homeless people.

Block Tin Thieves are Busy.

Cleveland, Jan. 22.—Expert railroad thieves evidently have organized for the purpose of stealing block tin imported from India, from the cars of the Lake Shore railroad. In the last six months more than $6,000 worth of this metal has been taken from the cars and only about $2,000 recovered. The largest haul was made by the thieves last Friday, when $2,500 worth of the metal was taken from a freight car somewhere between Erie, Pa., and Cleveland. It was consigned to a firm at Elyria, O.

Is Arrested for an Old Crime.

Ashtabula, O., Jan. 22.—Everett Gary was locked up in jail here Monday. He was arrested at Palmyra, Pa. He is charged with an indictment charging him with shooting with intent to kill. About a year ago his sweetheart, Belle Clark, went to church on Sunday night with another man. Gary followed them home, and when Miss Clark went into the house he shot at her. He is claimed, through the power of the door. He did not hit her. He left and has not been seen here since until now.

Seven Candidates for a Judgeship.

Columbus, O., Jan. 22.—These are the candidates for the new federal judgeship, so far as announced: J. E. Sater, Columbus; J. J. Adams, Zanesville; Gilbert H. Stewart, Columbus; Sherman McPherson, Cincinnati; Judge O. B. Brown, Dayton; Judge John A. Shaukel and Judge A. N. Summers, of the Ohio supreme court. D. K. Watson and John M. Shoen, of Columbus, are also mentioned. The new judge will sit at Columbus all the time.

An Appeal for Aid.

Columbus, O., Jan. 22.—Gov. Harris has received an appeal from Mayor Hill, of Aberdeen, on the Ohio river in Brown county, saying that the people there are in need of help. He did not specify what is wanted and the governor tried to get into communication with him, but failed and it is supposed that all communication with the town has been cut off by the flood.

Crazed by "Gift of Tongues."

Alliance, O., Jan. 22.—Driven insane when his wife and daughter joined the "gift of tongues" sect, John R. Caskey was committed to the Massillon state hospital Monday. He brooded over their conversion until he imagined that they also were insane. Caskey tried in vain to get them to leave the band.

Cold Weather in Europe.

London, Jan. 22.—Intense cold prevails over eastern Europe even as far south as Greece. At St. Petersburg the thermometer registered 20 degrees below zero, and in the province of Yaroslavl 50 below zero. The peasants are literally living on top of their stoves, and day and night enormous braziers are kept burning on the streets of St. Petersburg, hot tea is dispensed through the night by order of the government, and troops are patrolling the streets to rescue frozen cab drivers and others.

Refused to Postpone the Election.

Austin, Tex., Jan. 22.—Voting on the re-election of a United States senator will begin at noon to-day in both houses of the state legislature and will be jointly continued on Wednesday, irrespective of real or prospective investigations concerning charges preferred against Senator Bailey, who is the endorsed candidate for re-election. The house on Monday refused to take favorable action on a resolution offered by the opponents of Senator Bailey, seeking to postpone the election.

Will be Deported.

Logansport, Ind., Jan. 22.—Fifty animal trainers and other circus employees of the Hagenbeck shows, who were released on arrival in Peru, where the show consolidated with another circus, were last night shipped to Logansport by the Peru police. The men were arrested and will be deported.

REFUSED TO QUASH.

Judge Landis Gives the Standard Oil Company of Indiana a Hard Jolt.

Chicago, Jan. 22.—The trial of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana on the charge of receiving concessions upon shipments of oil from Whiting, Ind., as set forth in one of the eight indictments recently sustained by Judge Landis in the United States district court, was set Monday by the judge for March 4, 1907, after John S. Miller, attorney for the oil company, had entered a formal plea of not guilty in behalf of his client to the first count of the indictment. The indictment contains a total of 1,903 counts and Attorney Miller attempted to have quashed all but the first count of each of the eight indictments against the company, thus reducing from $28,000,000 to $20,000 the possible maximum fine against his client upon conviction.

The motion to have these counts quashed was promptly overruled by Judge Landis and Attorney Miller then declined to enter any plea upon the counts in question. He was ordered to plead instantly to the supplementary counts in the case set for trial on March 4, and when he failed to do so the court ordered the clerk to enter a plea of not guilty. In connection with his plea to quash, Attorney Miller contended that the Elkins law did not provide for an offense upon each shipment of oil made under the alleged unlawful concession, holding that the arrangement for the concession and the acceptance of it constituted the violation, no matter how many shipments were made upon the concession.

The Rock Island Gets the Contract.

Omaha, Jan. 22.—The Omaha post-office has been notified by the government that from and after January 25 the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad will carry the fast mail between Chicago and Omaha. For 20 years the Burlington has held this contract, as well as that for the transportation of the fast mail between Chicago and Denver. Whether the Rock Island will get the Denver contract is not known here. The award to the Rock Island was made on the ground that its train reaches Omaha from Chicago one hour earlier than that of the Burlington.

There is No Hope of His Recovery.

Olean, N. Y., Jan. 22.—There is practically no change in the illness of ex-Gov. Frank W. Higgins. Last night Dr. Hibbard said: "The seriousness of the condition of Mr. Higgins has been understood by his physicians and intimate friends for a long time. The disease is of such a nature that no safe prediction can be made as to its termination. Death may occur suddenly and it may not occur for several days. Of its ultimate fatal termination there is no doubt."

Suicided in a Police Station Cell.

Toledo, Jan. 22.—Believing himself disgraced by a night in the police station, Anton Kohler, a tailor, aged 45, committed suicide in his cell Monday by hanging.

Killed by a Train.

Upper Sandusky, O., Jan. 22.—W. J. Earhart was struck by the Pennellvania flyer Monday and instantly killed.

Piles

Cured Quickly and Painlessly—No Risk, No Danger

A Free Trial Package to Convince Sent by Mail to All Who Write

Common sense is just as necessary (even more so) in medicine as in business or the affairs of every day life. People are getting to know more than they used to. Not so long ago, it was the fashion to make all sorts of claims for a medicine, and wind up by asking the reader to go to a drug store and buy a bottle. People won't stand for that kind of thing now. They want proof—tangible proof. They want to try the remedy first and if they find it to be what is claimed they will be glad enough to go and buy it.

A CONVINCING ARGUMENT

That is why we say to every person suffering from piles or any form of rectal disease, send us your name and we will gladly send you a free trial package. For we know what the result will be. After using the trial you will hurry to your nearest druggist and get a 50ct box of Pyramid Pile Cure, now admitted by thousands to be one of the most wonderful remedies and cures for Piles ever known.

"Please excuse my delay in writing to you sooner in regard to what your Pyramid Pile Cure has done for me. I consider it one of the finest medicines in the world for piles. I suffered untold misery for four months when my wife begged me to send for a 50c box. When it was half gone I knew I was better and it didn't take any begging to get me to send for a second box. I think I am about well now, but if I feel any symptoms of a return I will order at once. I order it from the Pyramid Drug Co. to be sure of the cure. Tell all about this fine remedy for piles."

"And if there is anything in this letter you want to use to do so. I received your letter a few days ago. Yours for a remedy like Pyramid Pile Cure. J. J. McElwee. Honey Grove, Tex., R. R. 9, Box 29. Here is a Great Truth.

London's lord mayor gave the members of the Savage club, at their annual dinner not long ago, a sentence which, he informed them, he proposes to inscribe in letters of gold over the entrance to the Guildhall and in the Egyptian hall of the Mansion House. It ran: "Nobody likes long speeches except those who make them."

Rats Gnawed Through Beer Pipe.

Finding it impossible to draw beer from a barrel a barman in a Birmingham, England, restaurant went into the cellar and discovered that a hole had been eaten in the pipe by rodents. The floor was covered with beer, in which 20 rats were either lying insensible or crawling clumsily about.

Easing the Porous Plaster.

Before having a plaster applied to the back or chest one should take a deep breath and hold it while the plaster is being put on. If this is done the patient will not be annoyed by that drawing of the skin which is so unpleasant a feature when the plaster is ordinarily applied.

His Great Hope.

"I can't see anything of special interest in that manuscript of yours," said the publisher to the aspiring author. "I didn't anticipate that you would," replied the author. "But I thought possibly your readers might have more intelligence."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Benjaminites are Few.

About 84 per cent of otherwise normal people use the right hand in preference to the left; six per cent are left-handed, and it is a curious fact that one-third of the six per cent are ambidextrous.—Portland (Ore.) Journal.
